

Overview Facilitators

EVPA Training Academy | VP in Practice the fundamental toolkit

Fabio Segura
Jacobs Foundation
fabio.segura@jacobsfoundation.org

Fabio Segura is Head of International Programs at Jacobs Foundation, where he is responsible for leading the foundation's international programs and financing. Previously he served as Senior Investment Manager at LGT Venture Philanthropy, where he has led and grown the organization's investments and operations in Latin America and the Caribbean since 2008. Mr. Segura has screened over 300 social impact organizations in the region and presently serves on the boards of directors and advisory boards of investee companies in Centre and South America.

Inés Alegre
International University of Catalonia (UIC)
ialegre@iese.edu

Inés Alegre has a PhD in Management by IESE Business School and a Master's degree in Industrial Engineering by the Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya (UPC). She is currently tenure-track Assistant Professor at IESE Business School. Previously, Inés worked as an assistant professor at Universitat Internacional de Catalunya and at Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya and as a lecturer at Universitat Pompeu Fabra (ESCI-UPF) and has collaborated in other institutions such as ISM in Vilnius or the European Venture Philanthropy Association in Brussels. She belongs to the Decision Analysis Department where she teaches courses related to quantitative methods and decision analysis. Her research and publications are focused on the area of social entrepreneurship, social businesses and impact investment.

Lisa Hehenberger
ESADE
lisa.hehenberger@esade.edu

Dr. Lisa Hehenberger is professor in Entrepreneurship at the ESADE Business School. Prior, she was the Research Director of the European Venture Philanthropy Association and runs EVPA's Knowledge Centre that conducts and publishes research. Lisa is also a member of the European Commission's Expert Group on Social Business (GECES) and a Research Fellow at IESE Business School. Lisa has a PhD in Management from IESE and a Master's degree in Business/Economics from Stockholm School of Economics and HEC (CEMS). Her previous career was in investment banking at UBS and GB IB in London, Madrid and Barcelona.

Patrick Dunne
D30
patrickedunne@gmail.com

Patrick has extensive experience of developing social enterprises using venture philanthropy techniques, most notably with Leap Confronting Conflict, The EY Foundation and Warwick in Africa. He is currently Chairman of smart materials business D30, board consultancy Boardelta, the charities The EY Foundation, ESSA- Education Sub Saharan Africa and of the Chartered Management Institute's Board of Companions. Patrick is also member of the advisory boards of Bridges Social Entrepreneurs Fund and the FT NED club.

Annica Johansson
Reach for Change

Annica Johansson works as Impact Manager at Reach for Change, a non-profit organisation founded by the Kinnevik Group in 2010, currently operating in Africa, Eastern and Northern Europe as well as Central Asia. Annica is responsible for monitoring and evaluating the development of 120 social entrepreneurs in 17 countries, informing decisions on how to improve the efficiency of Reach for Change programs. Before Reach for Change, Annica worked as a management consultant within B2B sales and prior to that with youth development in South Africa. Annica has a B.Sc. in Business and Economics and is currently pursuing a M.Sc. in Human Rights.

Chloe' Tuot Phitrust

Chloé Tuot is French-American and holds an MBA from IE Business School in Madrid, Spain (concentration in finance and social entrepreneurship) and a BA in international relations and economics from the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, USA. Following seven years of experience in international development providing strategy analysis, project management, and communications/marketing support for UN agencies, foundations, NGOs and social enterprises in Europe, North America, Africa and Asia, she joined PhiTrust Partenaires in 2012 to contribute to the management and growth of the social investment portfolio.

Priscilla Boiardi
EVPA

Priscilla Boiardi joined EVPA in April 2014 as Research Manager and became EVPA's Knowledge Centre Director in April 2016. Priscilla has more than 8 years of research experience, first as a Research Associate at the Vlerick Business School and then as a PhD candidate at the Catholic University of Leuven. She has a strong expertise in research for business and public bodies, both qualitative and quantitative, and was responsible for the Global Competitiveness Report of the World Economic Forum for Belgium. During her years as a researcher, Priscilla had the opportunity to present her work to policy makers, fellow academics and practitioners. Priscilla holds a MSc (Hons) in Economics and Management of Public Administrations and International Institutions from the Bocconi University in Milan. She is an Italian national and speaks Italian, English and Spanish.

Rachael Ibbot
Impetus-PEF

Rachael is an Investment Manager at Impetus-PEF, a charity which builds the capacity of other charities to deliver educational and work readiness outcomes for disadvantaged young people in the UK. Before joining Impetus-PEF, Rachael completed the On Purpose Associate Programme in Social Enterprise Leadership. Previously, she was a Business Analyst at Capital One, during which time she volunteered with Impetus-PEF as a pro bono data analyst.